Lessons From Alfred (Week 3) The First Must Be Last

The _____ is _____ you. Are you
_____ Him?

Scripture Used: 1 Samuel 12:24; Mark 9:35, 10:45; John 12:26;
Romans 7:6; 2 Corinthians 4:5; Galatians 5:13, 6:10;
Colossians 3:23-24; 1 Peter 4:10

Small Group Questions

1. How do those who serve replenish their souls so as to avoid “giver’s fatigue”?
2. In the example of the “Giving Tree” it seems that the tree gives and gives until it has nothing left and the boy does not even appreciate it. Is there a point when it becomes unhealthy to give so much of yourself? Is there a point where you need to break off that relationship?
3. If love is the purest motivator to serve, what are some others that may not be at that level? Which ones have you seen or experienced? Are these bad?
4. What needs to transform/change in you for you to become a better servant?
5. Have you ever served with wrong motives? What was the result?
