WHO?

CARS Ministry is targeted to anyone who is a regular attender of Fairview Missionary Church who cannot afford to have their car's regular maintenance work done, with a special appeal to single mothers, widows, unemployed, or severely underpaid people. If you can afford to have your car's oil changed and regular maintenance work done, this ministry is not for you.

WHAT?

CARS will provide the following:

oil, filter, lube	air filter
windshield wipers	batteries
lights	exhaust
belts	brakes
general maintenance

CARS will also provide emergency repair needs. Call the church office for this ministry.

WHEN?

CARS ministry day is the second Saturday of the month, with appointment times beginning at 8:30 a.m. Work will be done while you wait.

WHERE?

Work will be done at Ed and Peggy Teegardin's place on 500 S, near Hamilton. He has the facilities to make this work. A map is available in the church office.

HOW?

To sign up to have your car worked on, fill out the attached form and place it in Ed Teegardin's mailbox by the Sunday before the scheduled repair day.

CARS Ministry is possible through the generous donation of time and abilities by various men in the congregation. Materials and supplies are paid for by the church's benevolence fund. Anyone wishing to help this ministry may contribute to the benevolence fund, earmarking their gift CARS Ministry.
