Speaker: Chaplain (Colonel) Tim Willoughby. Chaplain Willoughby was the senior chaplain over all armed services at the highest point in both Gulf Wars and Afghanistan with over 500 chaplains under his responsibility. Many of the names of military personnel you now hear on the news and recently appointed to government positions are among his friends. He has given spiritual counsel to the men and women who have led our armed forces for the last 15 years. He is one of only a handful of chaplains to earn the Green Beret. A humble man of God, he is now a counselor on staff at Bayside Community Church of God in Bayside, Florida. Tim is Linda Fuller's cousin.

Pastor Norm's Wednesday Evening

Small Church is doing the DVD series by Andy Stanley. This week's DVD is "Learning to be content in whatever circumstances". This is really good! Join them and bring a friend, 6:45 pm, room S103/104.

A few weeks ago Pastor Joel did a series on Essential Doctrines and there was a special pamphlet available for that series. More of these pamphlets are in the literature rack and on the bulletin table.

Pastor Norm is prayerfully forming two new small groups of age 50+ married couples who are new to FMC. If you fit into this category, and would like to meet on a monthly basis, he and Linda invite you to their home Sunday evening, May 5, for an informational meeting. Please RSVP to Linda, 665-6975 or lindafuller6@gmail.com
