Today is Give it All Away Sunday!

After hearing Don Riley share two weeks ago about Liberia, many have wondered what it would cost to fund all the projects that were mentioned. The total cost would be roughly $42,000: $10,000 to sponsor 111 students; $10,000 for the completion of the school construction (roof, plastering of walls and ceilings, windows, doors) plus school desks and chalkboards; $10,000 will build two, maybe three, homes to take care of special needs orphaned children and $12,000 for church planting and discipleship including two training centers and printing of training materials. Thank you for your generous giving this week and every week.
