Small Group Questions

1. Did the statistics Joel shared on Sunday morning about adultery surprise you? What about the one that said 78% of men would have an affair if they did not think they would get caught? The percentage for women was almost as high. What does that say about Satan's lie in this matter?
2. Why did God make sex so desirable and pleasurable for us, when He knew it would contribute to an adultery problem today, that is so prevalent?
3. When you think lustful thoughts about someone or look at one of those pictures you shouldn't, should you confess that to your spouse?
4. As brothers and sisters in Christ what is our responsibility to those we think may be struggling with adulterous situations?
5. David was a "man after God's own heart" and yet he yielded to the sin of adultery and then murder. He repented and was forgiven. However, the consequences of that sin on he and his family's life was significant. Do you believe that even if you are forgiven, that all consequences are not eliminated from the sin? Could God do that? Why would he?
6. When does looking at a person of the opposite sex cross the line and become lusting, or as the Bible says, adultery?
