1. Why is it irrational to believe that our personal decisions don't impact others?
2. How can believers still connect and be vulnerable with each other as they work through sin?
3. Joel talked about the sin of not doing something good. Is there something good you need to be doing in your life that you keep putting off? e.g. devotionals, prayer, family time, etc.
4. Do you have a personal testimony/game plan in order to explain to an unbeliever their need for a Savior? How would you go about saying it to them-is it something you have practiced?
5. Why don't all people recognize they are sinners in need of a savior?
6. Because of our judicial system, is it hard to see all sins as the same?
